

Philip J. Anderson, Brass Tuition

My name is Philip Anderson and I am a brass teacher working across schools in Gloucestershire as well as offering private lessons after school. I recently visited Horsley Primary School with other musicians from Nailsworth Silver Band to introduce the children to the wide variety of brass instruments, eg cornet, trumpet, trombone, etc.

I am currently in a position to offer the opportunity for children at the school to take up one to one lessons during the school day. I offer 15 minute lessons, at £8 each, payable up front for the term. I deliver 30 lessons over the course of a year, usually broken down to 12 in the Autumn term, 10 in Spring and 8 in Summer. I am the brass teacher in a few of the local secondary schools, including Sir William Romney and Cirencester Deer Park.

If your child was excited by the brass assembly the band delivered and would like to take up lessons, please get in touch. You can find out more about me, and view my full terms and conditions, on my website.
