Dear Parents and Carers

You will be aware that the National Education Union (NEU) has voted to strike on days in the coming months, with the first planned for Wednesday 1st February. Schools will be affected to differing degrees, depending on the union membership of individual teachers; therefore, each school will be responding differently.

I am anticipating that there will be disruption on the designated strike days. However, at present, it is difficult to determine what this will look. As such, I will keep you posted, as best I can, when more information becomes available,

Yours faithfully

Gary Price
Headteacher
