Dear Parents/Carers,

As we move into March, we are approaching World Book Day and Red Nose Day. The School Council has been in discussions and have decided on the activities we would like to do to mark these days. Please read below to see what we would like the children to do to celebrate these days.

World Book Day

On Friday 8th March, we would like to give everyone the chance of coming dressed as their favourite book character (fiction or non-fiction). We would be grateful if you could bring in the book the character is from. Each class will offer children time to read a section from their book or to show some pictures from their book if they want to (this may be done in small groups or in front of the class).

Red Nose Day

This year Red Nose Day is on Friday 15th March. The theme this year is Wear Something Funny for Money and we would like you to do exactly this! Some ideas include: wearing things inside out, wearing something wacky like a parent's T-shirt that is too large, or any other silly idea you can come up with. Red noses are also welcome. All donations (we suggest £1 per child) can be made through the special Parentpay link, through which all funds go directly to Comic Relief. The link is <https://app.parentpay.com/ParentPayShop/Foc/Default.aspx?shopid=14067> (NOT your usual Parentpay login).

We would also like to do a Design your own red nose competition. It will be £1 to enter the competition (to be handed in with your design at the office). A design sheet will be handed to children on Monday 11th March and then we ask that the entries be returned on Thursday 14th March. School Council will decide on a winner from each class and during the Friday Celebration Assembly they will be given a certificate and a red nose as a prize.

Thank you for your support.

Best wishes

Ivy-Mae (Chair) and Darsha (Vice Chair)
